The work of The Edward James Foundation and West Dean College and Gardens

West Dean College is part of The Edward James Foundation, a registered charity which includes West Dean Gardens, the West Dean Estate and West Dean Tapestry Studios. Our mission is to provide the highest quality education in creative arts and conservation. Underpinning it all is the vision of our founder and Surrealist patron Edward James, connecting today's students and visitors with a rich heritage of arts, crafts and creativity. Through our work we aim to inspire creativity, champion traditional art and craft practices and advance the care of heritage objects.

In order to nurture the artists and conservators of the future and to preserve this beautiful estate which includes one of the greatest restored gardens open to the public, the Edward James Foundation relies on the generosity of individuals and organisations to help deliver our charitable aims.

Every penny you spend at West Dean, whether by attending a short course, making a purchase in our shop or restaurant, becoming a Friend or making a donation to support our work, helps to keep West Dean College and Gardens open and preserve it for future generations and visitors.

Thank you for your support.
