SID07949 JEWELLERY – SILVER AND GOLD EARRINGS – A TASTER DAY

Tutor: SARAH MACRAE

Date: 1 DAY TUESDAY 19 JUNE

ABOUT YOUR COURSE:

Make a pair of beautiful contemporary Keum Boo earrings for pierced ears in a day.

Keum Boo is an ancient Korean technique, using diffused heat to fuse pure gold foil to silver creating a rich surface that can then be further enhanced by roller printing with watercolour paper. This project might also appeal to someone with some jewellery skills who would like to learn two fascinating surface decoration techniques that can be used individually or together, but even a complete beginner will be able to wear their earrings home at the end of the day.

LEVEL: BEGINNERS

Starting points. For those with little or no experience who want to go back to basics and would like a structured introduction to a subject.

ABOUT YOUR TUTOR:

Sarah Macrae, a studio jeweller and teacher, trained at the University of Brighton. She is author of Designing and Making Jewellery and exhibits regularly with the Designer Jewellers Group.
