SWE08097 DRAWING FOR IMPROVERS

Tutor: JOHN T FREEMAN

Dates: WEEKEND FRIDAY 31 AUGUST – SUNDAY 2 SEPTEMBER

ABOUT YOUR COURSE:

Many students have commented that they want more than the basic drawing skills but don't feel confident enough to go to the next level. This course will help to improve your confidence and drawing skills and is designed for any students who have taken a beginners' drawing course with John. (If you haven't and would like to join this course you can book: AN INTRODUCTION TO DRAWING immediately before this course, 31 August 2018: A basic introduction including scale, tone and composition as you create several pencil sketches.)

John will review the key elements of drawing and then focus on developing your visual reasoning abilities and introducing expressive elements into a drawing. Using a structured sequence of exercises you will gain confidence in using a wide spectrum of techniques to enhance the creative aspects of drawing. These will include the use of shading and texture, the dramatic use of tone, dynamic composition and the introduction of subjective narratives.

LEVEL: BEGINNERS/INTERMEDIATE

For those with little or no experience who have taken a beginners' drawing course with John. Suited to those who would like a structured introduction to a subject, with further building of skills to work towards independent practice.
